From Our Pastor …

I wish to present below, excerpts from our Archbishop Frank Cardinal Leo's Message for World Youth Day, 22 November 2026

"World Youth Day 2027, The theme: "Take courage! I have overcome the world" (Jn 16:33), reminds us that our hope and confidence rest not in ourselves, but in Jesus, who brings us together, and who sends us into the world as his witnesses.

The World Youth Day theme brings us back to the Last Supper where Jesus speaks to his disciples on the night before his suffering and death. Amid the uncertainty, misunderstanding, and search for meaning of the disciples (Jn 13:6–9,21-25,27-29; 14:1-5, 8-9; 16:5,16-18,29-32), Jesus prepares them for his departure, teaches them to abide in his love, promises them the gift of the Holy Spirit, and assures them that his victory is greater than anything they will face in the world. World Youth Day mirrors this movement by gathering young people, helping them to deepen their encounter with Christ, strengthening their belonging in the Universal Church, and sending them forth as witnesses of God's love.

The choice of Seoul, South Korea is significant because it is the first World Youth Day to be held in a country where Christians are a minority. The history of the Church in Korea, born largely through the witness of lay faithful and strengthened by the sacrifice of its martyrs, offers a powerful example of faith lived with conviction and courage.

May the words of Jesus echo in every heart: "Take courage! I have overcome the world" (Jn 16:33) and inspire a new generation of missionary disciples who place their trust not in themselves, not the secular agenda, nor in empty promises that regrettably our culture makes us - but in the One who has already won the victory and who continues to lead his Church with hope: JESUS." - Cardinal Francis Leo

Let us meditate on these insightful words of our Chief Shepherd of our Archdiocese. May the Good Lord fill us with His Spirit that we may continue to carry out our Mission and ministry trusting in the Lord's reassuring permanent presence in our midst.
