SHARELIFE – JULY 30, 2023

Work together for good through ShareLife

The second reading tells us that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to His purpose. (Romans 8:28)

He is calling us to live our lives as disciples, and we can do so by sharing what we can with those who need it the most. Through ShareLife, we can reach out to the most vulnerable in our communities and those who continue to suffer around the world.

Please give at the parish using a ShareLife envelope, online through our parish website, or at sharelife.org/donate.

Our goal is $107,000.00 we have raised $79,283.85

CO-OP MISSION SUNDAY

On behalf of the Congregation of the Holy Cross, I thank all the members of the St. Thomas parish for your gracious welcome for this year's Mission Preaching. As a missionary myself, working in the Northeastern Region of India (Near Burma and Bangladesh Border), I can assure you that your prayers and support always reaches to those who proclaim the message of the Kingdom of God. As a province of Holy Cross, we are now 78 priests, who are engaged in the Mission works in the parishes, schools, and hospitals. This year your contribution will help to support the recent refugees who come from Burma and Bangladesh to seek shelter, schooling and survive from the harsh realities of life. Thank you for your generous support towards the missionary works of the Holy Cross Congregation.

Regards,

Fr. Sojan Augustine CSC

THE SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME Gospel Reading – Matthew 13:44-52 JESUS TEACHES ABOUT THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN

Today's Gospel concludes three weeks of readings from the 13th Chapter of Matthew's Gospel. Throughout these three weeks we have heard Jesus' teaching crowds about the Kingdom of Heaven, and we have heard Jesus interpret some of His teachings for the disciples. In this week's Gospel, Jesus offers three more short parables.

The first two parables describe the great value of the Kingdom of Heaven. In the first parable, Jesus says that the Kingdom of Heaven is like a buried treasure that is worth possessing even if it means giving up everything else. In the second parable, Jesus proposes that the Kingdom of Heaven is like a pearl of great worth for which one will sell everything else to possess. These parables teach us that we are to place everything we value in the service of the pursuit of the Kingdom of God.

The third parable that Jesus proposes in today's Gospel is different from the first two, but it is reminiscent of the parable of the Sower heard in last week's Gospel. The Kingdom of Heaven is compared to fishing with a wide net. After the fish have been collected, the good fish are kept and the bad fish are thrown away; so too, in the final judgment, will the wicked and the righteous be separated.

Today's Gospel concludes with a curious statement about the scribe who understands the Kingdom of Heaven. He a metaphor is offered: this scribe is like the head of a household who "brings from his storeroom both the new and the old." The scribes referred to here are experts of Mosaic law. It is possible that Jesus is here instructing the early Christian community on how to proceed in the interpretation of Jewish law with respect to Jesus' "new" teaching. Jesus' teaching about the Kingdom of Heaven does not replace the Jewish tradition; it interprets it in a different light.
