From Our Pastor ...

Beatification of Martyrs in Georgia and the Need to Pray for those Persecuted for their Faith in Christ

Our Archbishop Cardinal Frank Leo will represent the Holy Father as Papal Legate and preside over the Beatification of Liturgy of the Venerable Servants of God Pedro de Corpa and his Four Companions – commonly known as the Georgia Martyrs – on October 31, 2026 in Savannah, Georgia. Out of a few beatifications to occur on American soil, this will be the first in Georgia. Speaking about the beatification Bishop Stephen D. Parkes, of the Dioceses of Savannah said that “the beatification Liturgy will be of great significance for the faithful within the Diocese of Savannah and the Archdiocese of Atlanta.”

The year is also noteworthy, as these Franciscan friars will be declared ‘Blessed’ while the Catholic Church honors the 800th anniversary of the death of their order’s founder, St. Francis of Assisi, in 1226.”

On January 27, 2025, Pope Francis authorized the promulgation of the Decree declaring that Spanish missionaries Pedro de Corpa, Blas Rodríguez, Miguel de Añon, Antonio de Badajóz, and Francisco de Veráscola were true martyrs for Christ, killed in odium fidei (“hatred of the faith” in September 1597. Their steadfast faith and missionary zeal have long been remembered and celebrated by the Church in the region and beyond.

Cardinal Leo said that “The beatification of Friar Pedro de Corpa and his Companions is a powerful reminder that the Gospel of Christ has taken root in every land through the faithful witness of those willing to give everything for the Lord Jesus, including their very life. In the communion of saints, their courage and charity continue to inspire the Church to proclaim the Good News with fidelity and constancy.

I am humbled and honoured to represent His Holiness Pope Leo XIV as his legate and to join the pastors and all faithful in this momentous celebration of faith, indeed a profound moment of prayer and thanksgiving for the life, witnessing and intercession of Venerable Pedro de Corpa and his Companions.”

Let us join in the celebration spiritually by praying for all those Christian sisters and brothers in some countries across the world who are persecuted for proclaiming, celebrating and practicing their Christian Faith that the Lord may bless them with courage and perseverance.
