God's Command to REMEMBER

More than any other commandment it is the Commandment to Remember that occupies a special place in the Bible. About 200 times God's call to "REMEMBER" is recorded in the Bible by the Sacred authors. The month of November holds a unique place in the Catholic Church's liturgical and spiritual life. We begin the month with a Solemn celebration of the communion of All Saints and the next day we have the Commemoration of the Faithful Departed, a day dedicated to "All Holy Souls in Purgatory." We then commemorate a rich tapestry of saintly feasts and popular devotions and at end the month we begin a New Liturgical Year with the dawn of the Season of Advent. In November, as we rejoice in the triumphant communion of the saints, the long tradition of the Church also encourages us to pray earnestly for the souls in Purgatory which deepens our oneness and understanding of the unity of the Body of Christ—living, dead, and glorified. May these spiritual practices draw us closer to the mystery of our Salvation in Christ Our Lord. Amen.

Fr. A. Joseph Chandarkanthan, Pastor

COME AND SERVE AT THE ALTAR OUR LORD
